

This recording is part of the
Sing With Our Kids Project
for early learning through community singing
Visit www.SingWithOurKids.com
for free information, songs, activities,
and resources

This CD and printed information may be duplicated for any reason that is not for profit. So please share!

A Baker's Dozen

13 TRADITIONAL SONGS
TO READ AND SING WHEREVER YOU ARE

This recording is part of the
Sing With Our Kids Project

for early learning through community singing
Visit www.SingWithOurKids.com
for free information, songs, activities,
and resources

This CD and printed information may be duplicated for any reason that is not for profit. So please share!

A Baker's Dozen

13 TRADITIONAL SONGS
TO READ AND SING WHEREVER YOU ARE

1. A Hunting We Will Go
2. Five Little Ducks (counting song)
3. Old MacDonald Had a Farm
4. Head and Shoulders
5. Hickory, Dickory, Dock
6. I Know an Old Lady
7. I'm a Little Teapot
8. It's Raining, It's Pouring
9. I've Been Working on the Railroad
10. The Itsy Bitsy Spider
11. The Lady With the Alligator Purse
12. The Wheels on the Bus
13. Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star

Copyright 2013 Nancy Stewart, Friends Street Music, BMI
SingWithOurKids.com

Books That Sing...

- are picture books based on songs
- are interactive!
- are great for kids from birth to ten
- expose children to a variety of artistic styles
- tap into the way we all learn something new by connecting it to something familiar
- super-charge early literacy as they reinforce all six skills children will need to become successful readers
- can follow traditional lyrics or make a new story out of an old song
- make literacy portable, as you can sing the song anywhere, reinforcing the book
- encourage storytelling as children re-invent songs
- are more fun than a (singing) barrel of monkeys!

These are just a few of the hundreds of songs available in picture book format. They have been selected based on their popularity with authors and illustrators, so you are likely to find many versions of these songs as picture books- both in and out of print. But don't stop here!

Visit www.SingWithOurKids.com for an extensive list of both traditional and original "books that sing," books with a beat (repeated catchy phrases), and books with a song inside a story. You can print out the list and take it to your local book store or library, and even listen to and download many more traditional songs for free! While you're there, be sure to read the tips on how to find and use these magical books at home or in the classroom.

read to sing, and sing to read...

- Singing builds memory
- Singing increases spatial reasoning, allowing children to recognize patterns
- Singing slows down words and breaks them into syllables, giving children a better understanding of oral language which leads to more success in reading!

