

Bill Grogan's Goat

E A
There was a man, now please take note

B7 E
There was a man who had a goat

A
He loved that goat, indeed he did

B7 E
He loved that goat just like a kid

E A
One day that goat felt frisk and fine

B7 E
Ate three red shirts, right off the line

A
The man he grabbed him by the back

B7 E
And tied him to a railroad track

E A
Now when that train hove into sight

B7 E
That goat grew pale and green with fright

A
He heaved a sigh as if in pain

B7 E
Coughed up those shirts and flagged the train!
